How would you feel if that child was your own?

DELIBERATE MURDER OF INNOCENTS.

Searching for relatives beneath debris.

Per Olow-Andersön, the Swedish Journalist-Photographer who took upon himself to secure these pictures and many others for the world to see the criminal atrocious deeds committed at Port-Said by Powers of Western Civilisation (?) was branded in the British House of Commons as ex-Communist . . . ex-Nazi . . . ex-Brown Shirt Member . . . and what not . . . WHY? Because he dared expose to the World the brutal crimes of Her British Majesty's Government and of Her Gallant Soldiers who aside from all crimes and atrocities committed, returned home with their hands full of their loot and of what they have stolen from Port-Said's Homes after smashing in pieces . . . breaking into bits . . . and setting fire to what they could not carry before their withdrawal.

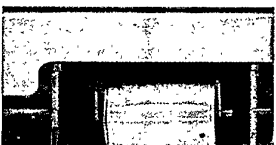

To Britain (which is no more Great) we say "Whatever you claim Mr. Anderson was . . . or whatever he may be . . . is of no importance to the World.— What we are concerned with, is the actual facts shown in the pictures which speak for themselves; facts you cannot deny."

ANGLO-FRENCH 'POLICE ACTION' (?) i n PORT - SAID.

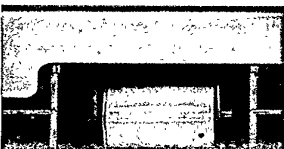

Here is the text sent to Press Agencies of the world, by the Swedish Journalist Photographer, PER-OLOW ANDERSON, who went to Port-Said a few hours after the City was 'policed' (?) by the Anglo-French forces which invaded Egypt under pretence of restoring peace.

●"November 6, 1956-"My eye witness story would not be a very nice story to tell children of the world. If it can be called a 'Police action' what the French and British troops have done to the Egyptians, then there is no place for the word "humanity" in their Dictionaries.- Few hours after cease-fire was declared, I entered the City of Port-Said and found a burning smoking inferno. I met children in the bombed out houses and among the ruins, searching for their parents. I saw parents, they too, were searching with bleeding hands in the wreckage that were left of their homes, to find their killed children. I saw the thousands of dead bodies in smoldering smoking ruins, in the backyards of the few hospitals that were still left; two hospitals completely blown up, containing some nine hundred patients altogether.- Is this to be called 'Police action' to fly along the streets machinegunning into every house as well as the streets? I call it terror and murder.

If you want to see my pictures, please call on International News Photos who has my material, the pictures and the story that British Officers tried to stop me from getting out of Port-Said.— I was smuggled out of that hell so that the whole world may know what happened in Port-Said.

It is a shame for England and a black spot which can never be cleaned off. I have been a war photographer since the civil war in Spain, and it is hard for me to find any comparison to Port-Said 'horror and terror' against civilians.

British Officers in the Port-Said area claimed that only small damage was done to civilians and their property. So do the so-called French and British war correspondents. I met and talked to some British Officers; they were never allowed to the terrible bombed areas by the P.R.O.- They never had a chance to speak to the population that had been so cruelly hurt.- The Israeli correspondent would naturally never give a true picture. That is why some Officers offered to send me to Cyprus for developing my pictures. I had been with the people of Port-Said and got all these details from Doctors in the hospitals, the Commander of the fire brigade and the men and women in the streets. I had seen the bodies of the civilians, children as well as women with the holes in their backs as they had been shot whilst running away. Six blocks of woodhouses were fire-bombed in Gamil area, and in the ruins among all other buildings I counted two hundred seventy dead carried away in the two hours I was there.- There is not much more to say; it could never be put into words. But my pictures of the father over his dead little daughter, and the wounded mother holding her dead little baby are documents that will never be forgotten."○

GENERAL SIR HUGH STOCKWELL

"THE BRITISH SOLDIER" IN PORT SAID

When the reports of the terrible atrocities and crimes committed by the British soldiers in Port Said were published by the World Press, General Hugh Stockwell ordered his War Correspondents to publish the following in the form of an interview in the British Press.

In reply, we merely submit these photographs taken by Per Olav Anderson, as well as many other non-British correspondents.

"This has been the toughest yet gentlest, angriest yet best disciplined Army, that Britain has ever sent out to fight—and win.

The men are bewildered and uncertain. They are not quite sure how their folks at home will regard them and their campaign. They don't know if all the propaganda lies about British brutality in Port Said has been ignored in Blighty.

Although the population has been most hostile, yet there has been not one case proven of brutality or negligence involving the Egyptian, or foreign population.

I am proud to report that only five cases of petty pilfering were recorded. There was not one case of organized looting. Even now when they are prepared to quit Egypt only nineteen offences involving civilian life and property are on the books. However, there will be no question of a court case.

On the road the British soldier has been a seeker after lost children and a settler of Arab duels. His gentle British justice would have made the Western world proud. When French paratroopers murdered two unarmed Egyptian boys aged 12 and 14 years, the British soldier arranged the funeral. If this campaign stinks in some quarters it is no fault of the British serviceman.

If Whitehall claims that only 100 Egyptians died in the fighting while we know the figure is over 1,000 let none blame the British soldier. He killed because he was ordered to and he is not ashamed".

The General then turned to his soldiers and said.

"Some people ask why we didn't go on and take Suez and even Cairo. That would have been jolly good fun for you and me and we would have enjoyed it, but those were not our orders.

Please remember what I have told you when people start arguing and criticising when you get back to your homes"

(This article having appeared in the British Press on December 3rd or 4th 1956.)

Letter to the Right Honorable Member

Mr. BUTLER

You and Mr. Leather said in the House of Commons that I have been an ex-Communist, ex-Nazi, former member of the Swedish Brown Shirt Nazi Party. Photographer with the German Army during World War II in Finland, member of the Quisling Red Horse League, that I have been to Russia on the invitation of the Soviet Government in 1945, that I had betrayed my countrymen to the Gestapo during World War II, and I had "interviewed" several British and Polish Ministers in London in 1945 and had published articles that were completely false. I "masqueraded" as an American journalist in the British Zone of Germany in 1945 and was deported to Sweden. All this you said was from the "War Dossiers". Did you really look into the "War dossiers"?

Had you done so you would have found that this Mr. Per Olow Anderson, had been a soldier in the Finnish-Russian War of 1939-40, on the side of the Finns.

Having fought with the Partisans against the German Nazi Army in Norway in 1940, later joined the British Secret Service and the Norwegian Underground Movement as a courier between the Norwegian border and Sweden during the German occupation of Norway. With full knowledge and support of the British Intelligence. Can you Mr. Butler deny this fact?

Under the name of Mr. Anders Olow Persson of Sondregatan 5 Trondheim, Norway, the Norwegian Partisan Party issued a false Identification Card to me, which was also supported by the British.

Mr. Butler, I am astonished that a man in your position, could stand up in the House of Commons and openly make statements based on such lies to the British public without first having definite proof of your lies.

Every word that was said about me in the House of Commons by Mr. Butler and Mr. Leather is false. Their speeches prove that there is in fact something that the Conservative Party is forced to hide from the British public and the world.

Mr. Butler, Here is my answer.
You can't escape the truth.

I remain,
PER OLOW-ANDERSON

LOOTING

What the British troops have done to the Port Said's homes in the way of looting and stealing is unbelievable. And what they could not steal; they destroyed.

What was once nice furniture, books, gramophone recordings, clothing, furs, paintings and carpets were now broken or cut into pieces.

The French have done the same. But there was not very much left to photograph in Port Fouad, after the French occupation. Since most of the furniture had disappeared from the homes where these troops had lived. Now only empty rooms and cold walls were left.

In the former British section of Port Said, radio-sets had been thrown out of windows, refrigerators smashed into bits, gas-stoves ruined, and the apartments I..., well..., there are no words to describe the uncivilized way these soldiers had treated the flats and villas before their withdrawal.

I moved in as the British troops moved out. I took these pictures on my own, and here I show YOU the result and I'd like to tell you DEAR READER, that I am not hired by any Egyptian Authority. But I am just as mad about what has happened as the other neutral journalists who accompanied me during the three days we stayed in Port Said and Port Fouad. And this is why my pictures and my recorded interviews from Port Said and Port Fouad is to be made public by the Egyptian Information Department so that this material may be used later at the United Nations.

The widow with her three children (see cover) who saw her husband and their father being shot because he refused to take down the photo of President Gamal Abdul Nasser, her story is a tragedy that the British soldiers must be very proud of.

These children now know what the word HATRED means.

All this was merely a private little war which was only to benefit England, France and Israel... had they SUCCEEDED.

Now the whole world together with the Egyptian victims have to pay the price for this so-called "Policeaction".

This was a sitting-room.

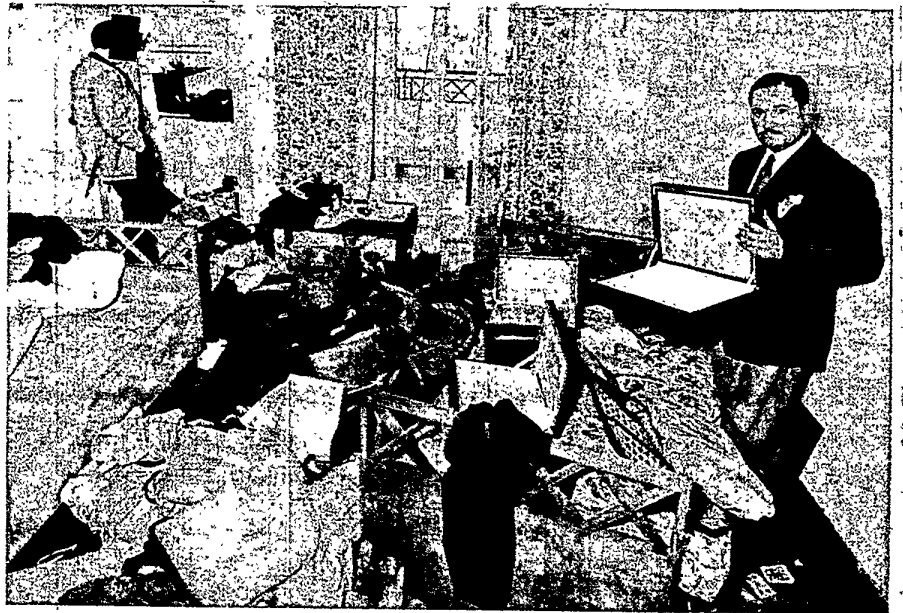

It astonished me how these people could live in such filth and dirt as they themselves had accumulated.

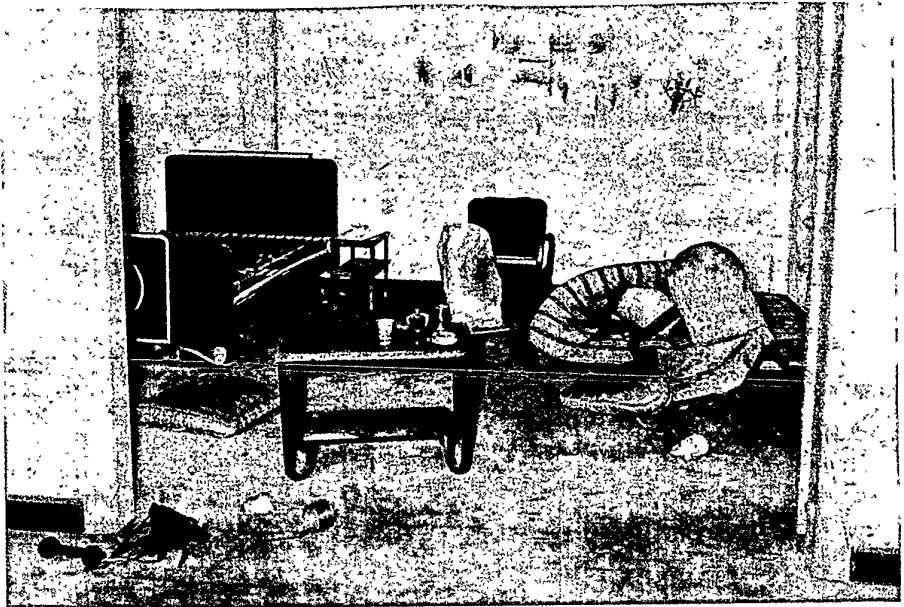

It is unbelievable how civilized people, could resort to such destruction of personal property and life.

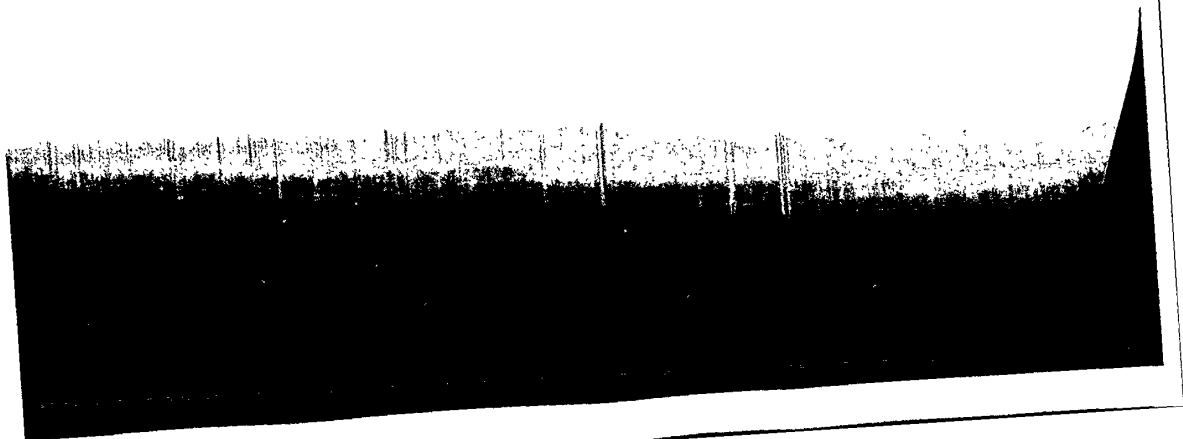

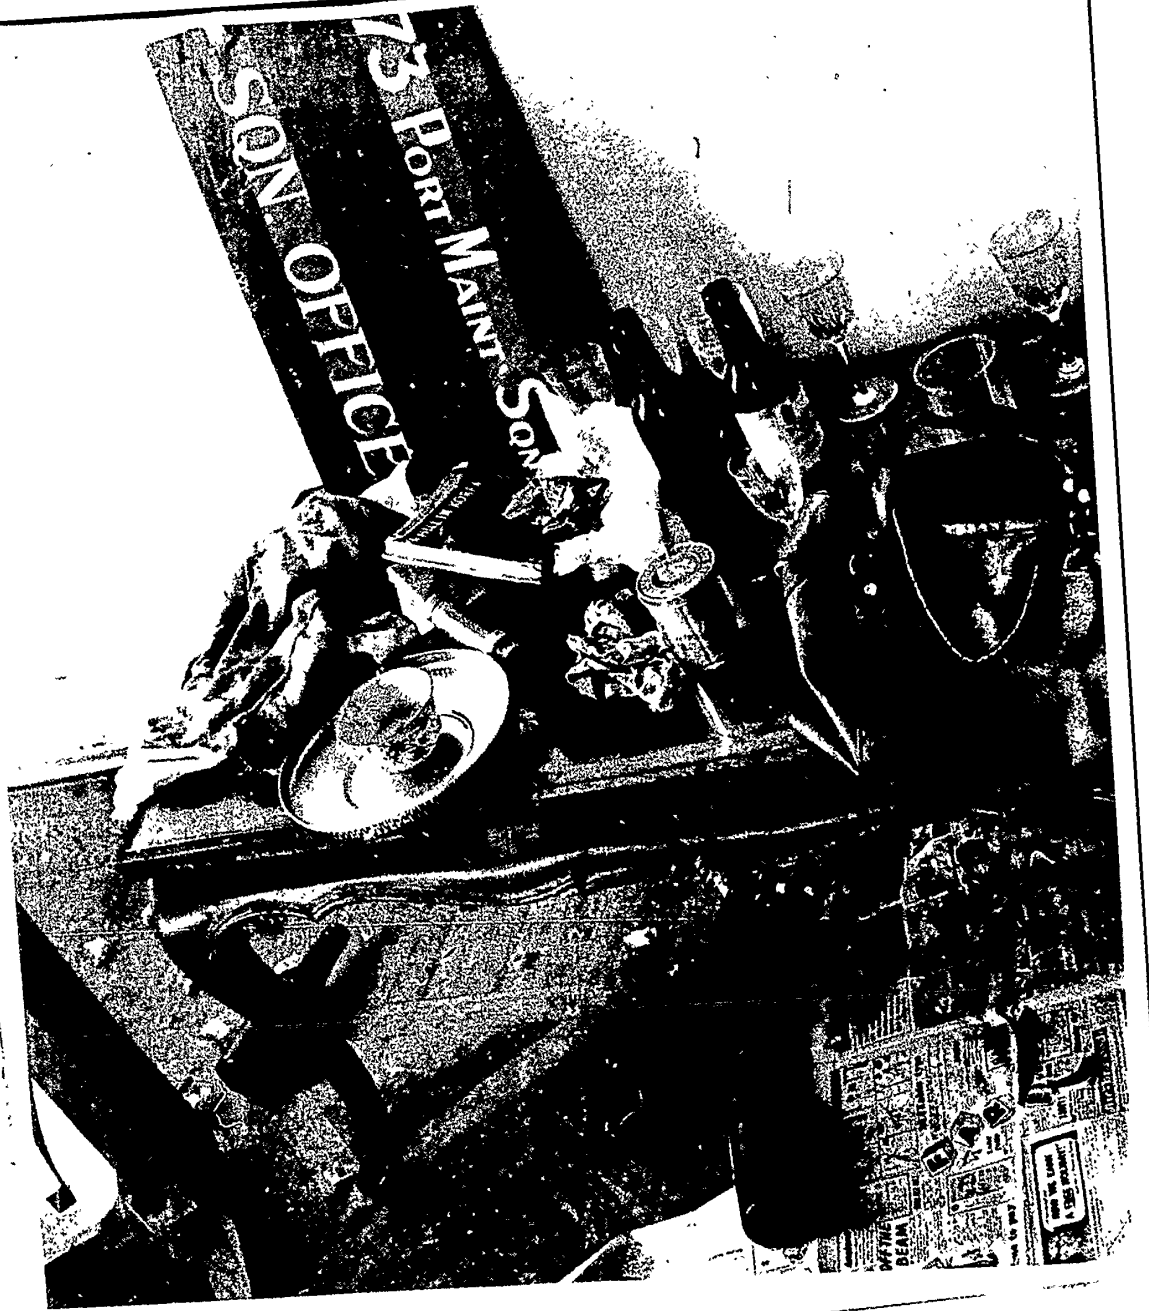

Silver Chests were robbed. Nothing of value was left behind when the British troops evacuated these homes.

They used only the mattresses

A children's bedroom.

This is some of the rubbish and junk left behind by the British occupants in Lutfi's villa.

It wasn't difficult to see that these flats had once contained very beautiful furniture. ►

◀ In a ground floor apartment I found this sign, "British Press Comme Information Center". You can easily see the mess it is left in.

A painting cut, but why?

A valuable Persian rug torn to pieces.

Canadian Journalist, is viewing the facts about the "No Civilian Damage" stated by the British Command in Port Said.

Clothing was removed from closets and torn into shreds, children's toys were smashed and beer bottles and empty food cans were spread or thrown on the floors and beds.

this doll.

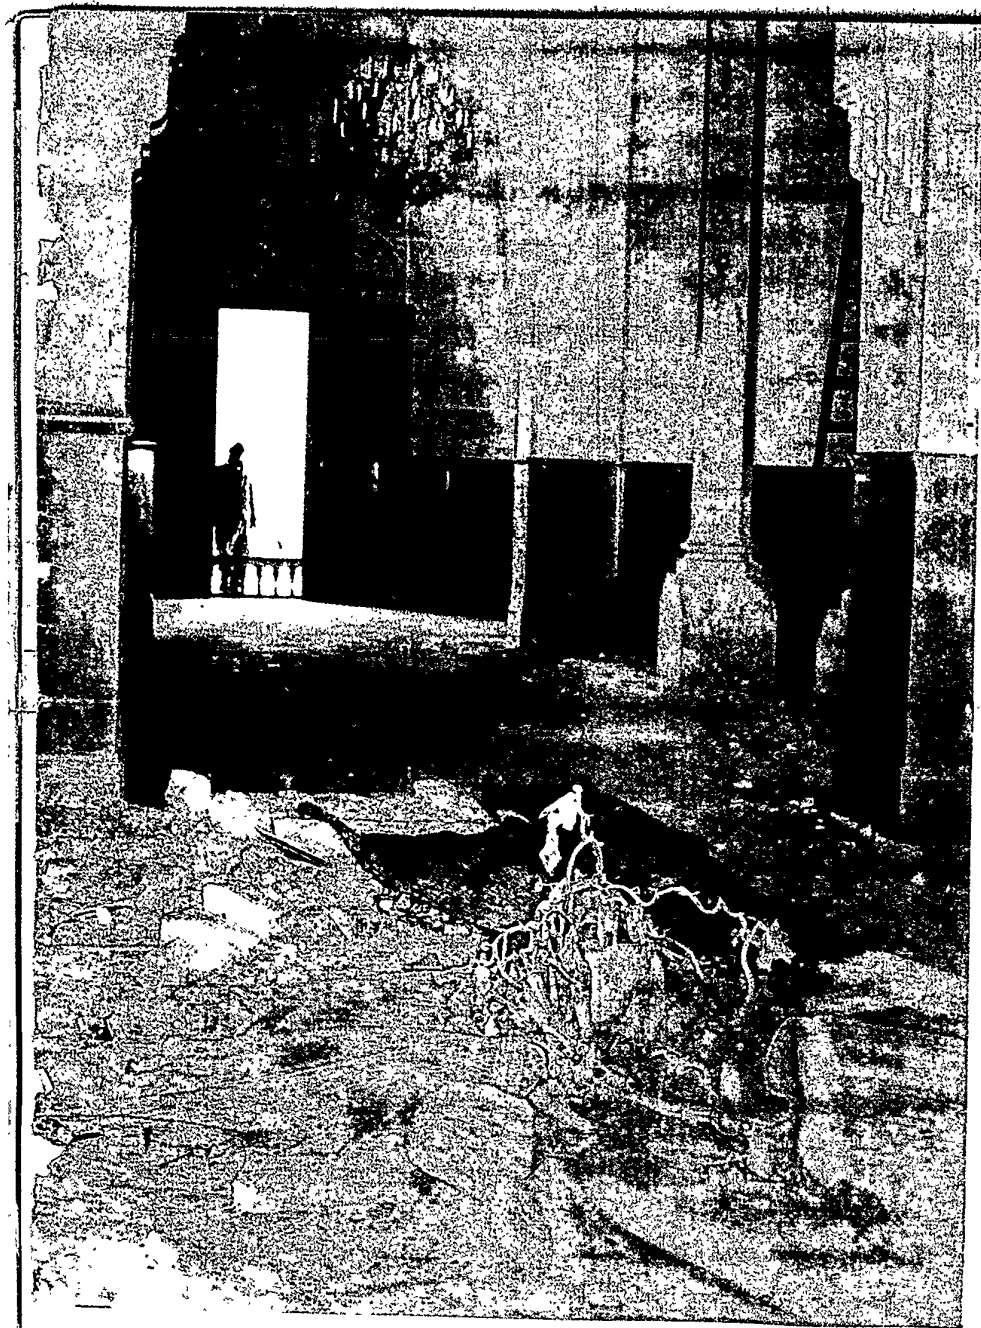

Lutfi's mansion.

Washing up ?? NEVER.

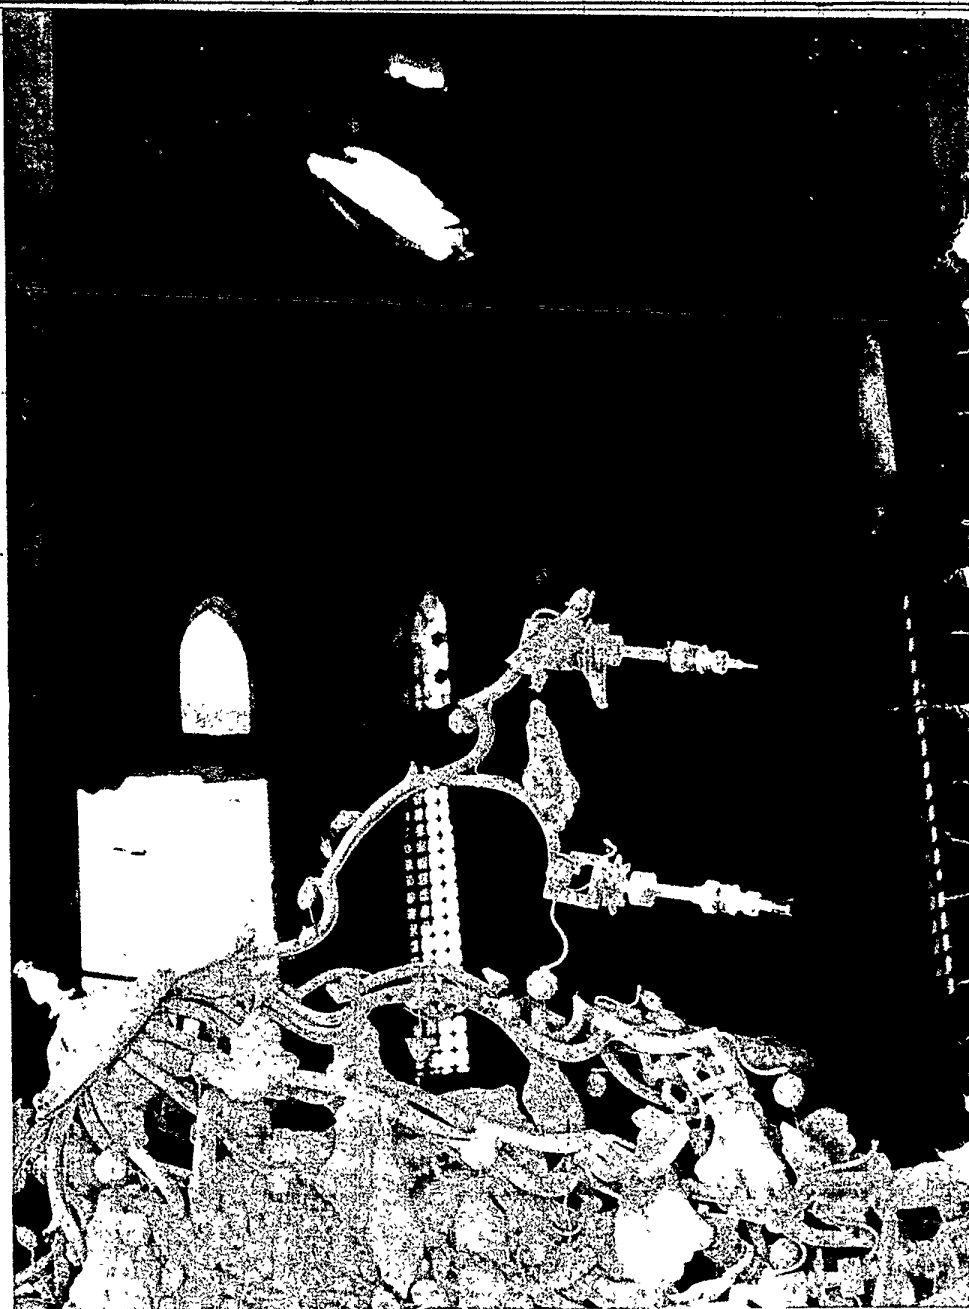

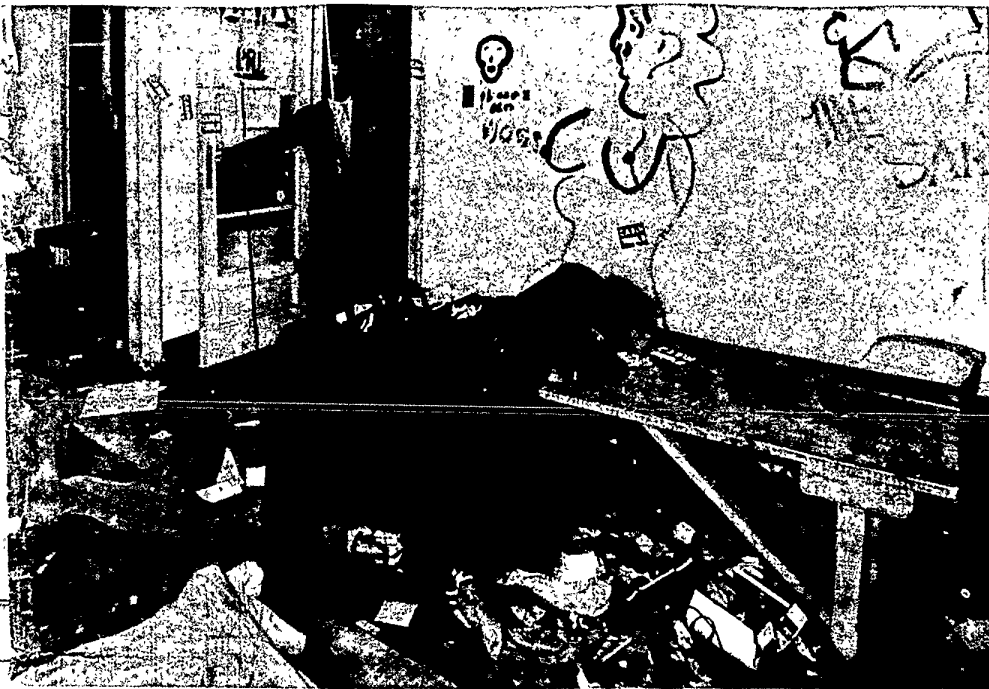

At Lutfi's Villa I counted 11 pieces of furniture that were the remains from 26 rooms. The rest was used as firewood. Two of the rooms had been hit by bombs, the damage seen here is evidence of what the British did purposely as they left with their loot.

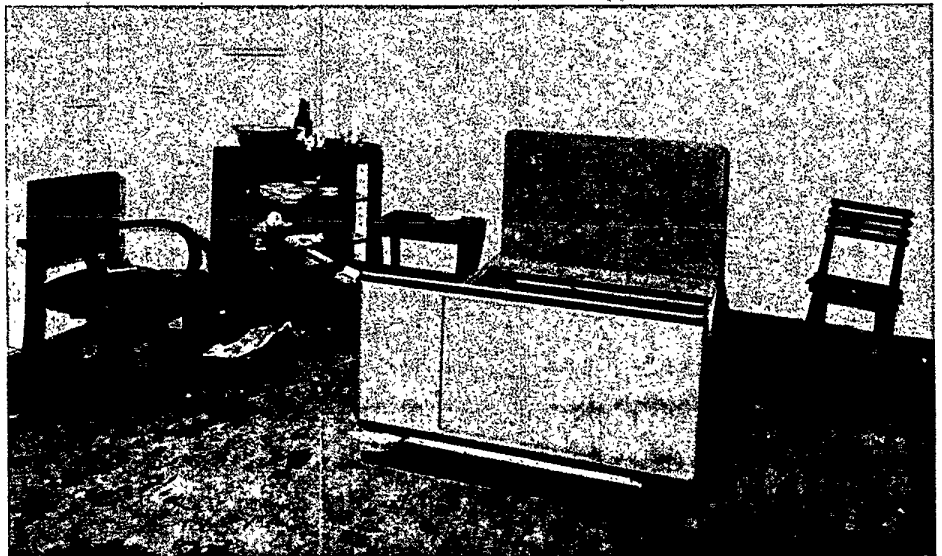

The mosque bombed

The beautiful Lutfi Mosque shows true evidence of this so-called "Police Action" by the British and French troops. The cable of the chandelier was cut by hand.

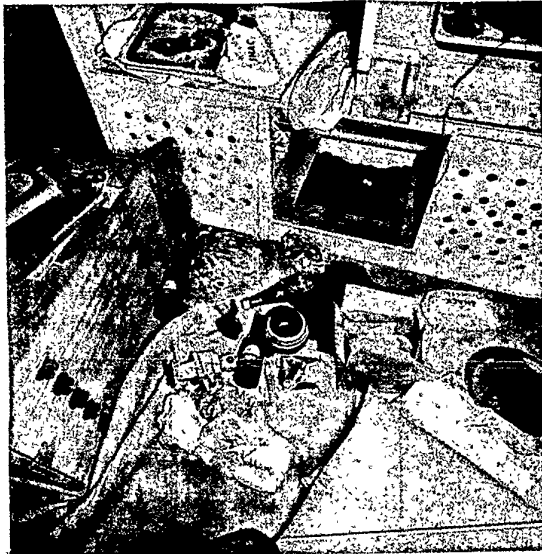

The classroom occupied by the French troops in Port Said.

The only glass cabinet left in Port Said.

Before leaving the homes on evacuation day, family photographs and important documents were ripped to pieces or burned, by the invaders.

Bathroom, Toilette and Kitchen all in one.

indicated that CONDE MC GINLEY, Box 807, Union, New Jersey, was consigned certain propaganda materials. This material included a statement by PER-LOW ANDERSON concerning the invasion of Egypt. NKT-1 stated on August 2, 1957, that the subject had received between five hundred and one thousand copies of a sheet entitled, "Anglo-French Police Action? in Port-Said", which contained statements by PER-LOW ANDERSON concerning the invasion of Egypt.

NKT-1 indicated MC GINLEY received these sheets from one Albena, Tourist agent in Jordan. He said that MC GINLEY has received similar pro-Arab propaganda from this source from time to time, but to his knowledge MC GINLEY has no arrangement with this individual and usually distributes this literature gratuitously along with other material which MC GINLEY publishes. NKT-1 added that MC GINLEY had stamped these sheets with his own name "Christian Educational Association, Union, New Jersey", which is the organizational name under which MC GINLEY operates.

NKT-1 indicated that he has no information which would indicate that MC GINLEY is acting at the order, request or under the direction of a foreign principal in this matter.

NKT-1 further indicated on September 13, 1957, that MC GINLEY has been including the above described sheet in his regular mailing to persons throughout the United States, but that no special use has been made of this article.

The files of Central Records, Immigration and Naturalization Service, Washington, D.C., reviewed on May 27, 1957, by SE [redacted] revealed that PER-LOW WILHELM ANDERSON was born in Stockholm, Sweden on March 30, 1911, and arrived in the United States at New York City on February 13, 1957, travelling on Swedish Passport UK 3050, issued at Cairo, Egypt. His occupation was listed as "Photographer - Reporter".

It is noted that a booklet entitled, "What Is to Be Done ... How It Would Be ... Done" was distributed during the early part of 1956 by the American Friends of the Middle East, Incorporated, 27 East 57th Street, New York City, reflecting that the American Friends of the Middle East, Incorporated, which was founded on May 15, 1951, is a private, non-profit, non-political, inter-cultural organization with broad relations on the sphere of interests. Through an interchange of ideas, it seeks to build and maintain bridges of friendship between the people of America and the people of the Middle East. According to this booklet, the purpose of this organization is to create friendship through lectures, publications and other means, to seek to a better understanding of the many contributions Middle Eastern people have made to culture and civilization. Its purpose is also to bring to the attention of the people of the Middle East, those values in our civilization which might be of great value to them in adjusting their way of life to the rapidly changing conditions of our age.

NY 100-1 on April 22, 1957, furnished a copy of the November, 1956 issue letter of the Palestine Arab Refugee Office, 231 Second Avenue, New York City, which contained an article by AMERSON concerning the British-French invasion of Port Said.

It is noted that in June, 1953, the Palestine Arab Refugee Office, 231 Second Avenue, New York City, registered with the Foreign Agents Registration System, United States Department of Justice, as an agent of the Arab Palestine Office for Refugees, Beirut, Lebanon.

NY 100-1 on March 19, 1957, made available booklet entitled, "Anglo-French-Israeli Aggression Against Egypt" which was distributed by the Egyptian Embassy, Washington, D.C., and page one of this booklet is captioned "An Egyptian Account of British-French Invasion of Port Said by the British Marines and the British Army".

NY 97-1409

WFO-1 on March 19, 1957, furnished a copy of the November, 1956, edition of "The Scribe", which is a monthly magazine published by the Centre For Middle East Research, Cairo, Egypt. This edition consisted of reproductions of photographs and an explanatory introduction by PER-OLUF ANDERSON. The foreward of this magazine is quoted as follows:

" 'The Scribe' publishes with regret the text sent to the Press Agencies of the world, by the Swedish Journalist-Photographer Per-Olof Anderson, who went to Port-Said two hours after the city was 'policed' by the Anglo-French forces which came to Egypt to restore peace after Egypt was invaded by Israel.

" 'The Scribe' apologizes for publishing these gruesome photos which hardly need any explanation, apart perhaps from stating that they were taken in Port-Said on Tuesday November 6th 1956."

HENRY REGNERY, President, Regnery Publishing Company, 64 East Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, advised SA LLOYD H. NELSON on May 8, 1957, as follows:

Subsequent to the British-French invasion of Egypt in late 1956, FREDA UTLEY, well known authoress, Washington, D.C., who had met ANDERSON in Middle East, suggested to latter that he contact the Regnery firm relative to the publishing of his book concerning the Middle East situation.

Several weeks ago, ANDERSON, whose wife has relatives somewhere in Chicago, Illinois, and a child in Stockholm, Sweden, approached REGNERY concerning his book. The book actually will contain very little text and consists principally of a series of excellent photographs taken by ANDERSON, a top flight photographer, of scenes in the Gaza Strip and elsewhere in Egypt. The book is entitled "They Are Human Too" and is described as a photographic essay on the Exhibition purposes. KENNEDY added that AMERICAN sold very liberally about the prices of these volumes. The book was accepted by KENNEDY for publishing and is presently in the hands of the printers, Photopress, Incorporated, Chicago and General Director, Chicago, and should be in retail stores in July, 1957. In this type of book an expensive to publish, KENNEDY received from AMERICAN a personal check in the amount of approximately $5,700.00 as a guarantee to purchase a quantity of the book when published. KENNEDY cannot recall book which either was American, nor the city.

AMERICAN further indicated to KENNEDY at time of current negotiations that governments of Saudi Arabia had an interest in the book and accordingly KENNEDY immediately directed a letter to the Saudi Arabian Ambassador, Washington, D.C., the result in effect that the Saudi Arabian Government would purchase a quantity of the book.

KENNEDY stated that AMERICAN never gave any indication he was officially connected with any government regarding the publication of this book. But as of opinion that sum of approximately $5,700.00 was probably made available to AMERICAN by interested Arabian Government(s) or AMERICAN in intent to attempt to be in good of funds.

On May 15, 1957, FREDERICK ALMSTROM appeared at the Washington, D.C., headquarters of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and interviewed by SA B. W. SUTTLER, at which time ALMSTROM stated that he had come to the United States with his wife during 1953 and was then residing at 1730 North Street, North West Washington, D.C. He mentioned that he might remain in the United States permanently as many of his friends had urged him to do so.

AMERICAN further advised that a book of photographs on the Egyptian situation which he had taken was in the process of being published by the Henry Regnery Company, 40 West Jackson Street, Chicago, Illinois. The title of this book will be "They Are Human Too".

ANDERSON explained that he had taken a series of photographs in Egypt which accurately portrayed the extent of what he called British "atrocities". He commented that he had personally counted 800 bodies victims of the bombing while the British claimed that only 100 persons had been killed. According to ANDERSON, the International News Service (INS) had prevented his pictures from being published in the United States because of pressure from Zionist groups as well as French and English groups. According to ANDERSON, INS had paid him $75.00 a day to make the pictures for a period of 12 days immediately following the bombing and had further agreed to pay him 25 per cent on the sale of pictures but these had been so slow because of the pressure exerted on INS by the Zionist, French and English groups referred to above.

ANDERSON stated that he had been able to have his photographs published in Europe and this included the British. He furnished one copy each of the November, 1956, and the January, 1957, issues of a magazine entitled "The Herald" which contained pictures of the damage allegedly done by British bombing at Port Said, Egypt. According to ANDERSON, as a result of the publication of his photographs in the November, 1956, issue of "The Herald" a malicious article about him was published in the London "Daily Mail" on December 11, 1956. ANDERSON furnished a copy of this article which had been written by WALTER ELLIS. ANDERSON commented that he was in the process of suing WALTER ELLIS and the London "Daily Mail" for libel and claimed as this article obviously accused him of being an ethical propaganda agent.

NK 1-2 was interviewed on June 10, 1957, at Washington, D.C., by SA HOWARD FURBER, Jr., at which time he advised that ANDERSON and his wife came to the United States in approximately February, 1957, and had a valid passport. ANDERSON called himself a Greek Photographer-Journalist. NK 2 stated that International News photographs handled the pictures ANDERSON took. NK 2 stated that ANDERSON had more contact with the Egyptian Embassy and visited the Consulate on several occasions. T-2 said the Press Office at the Egyptian Embassy had received money from Cairo, Egypt, and had paid ANDERSON approximately $8,000. T-2 stated this money was given to ANDERSON by two checks, but T-2 could not recall the amounts of those checks. T-2 said the latter check was for a lesser sum and that ANDERSON upon receiving the first check signed a receipt in which he acknowledged receipt of the money from the Information Department, Ministry of National Guidance, Cairo, Egypt, to assist in arrangements for publication and advance sale of six thousand copies of a book of photographs on Arab Refugees in the Gaza Strip of Egypt. T-2 stated that ANDERSON signed the second receipt in which he acknowledged that it was for expenses in arranging for the publication of a book of photographs and publicity concerning the publication of ANDERSON's book.

T-2 said the publisher of this book was the Henry Regnery Company, Chicago, Illinois. T-2 indicated he could not understand why the Regnery Company, which is such a large concern would publish this book for ANDERSON when it was apparent that a considerable amount of money for the publication was coming from the Egyptian Government.

On May 23, 1957, Mr. RAY THOMP, Sales Supervisor, Eastern Territory, Scandinavian Airline System (SAS), 133-02 Queens Boulevard, New York, advised SA EDWARD H. MADSEN that BERGLOU ANDERSON departed from Idlewild Airport on SAS Flight 6012 at 4:00 p. m., on Sunday, May 23, 1957.

DETAILS:

On October 16, 1957 T-1 furnished the following information:

MC GINLEY has published a booklet on the budget of Jewish Organizations in the United States. This booklet shows the amount of money spent by the organizations on Jewish groups and the amount spent on non-Jewish groups. The latter expenditure is supposedly for the purpose of exerting influence in those groups on certain matters in which the Jewish Organizations are interested.

An unnamed Lithuanian sailor, a contact of MC GINLEY, has taken, or will take, a copy of the booklet to a friend of MC GINLEY, one VON LEHR (PH), described as a former top-aide of Dr. JOSEPH GOEBELS, former Nazi German leader. VON LEHR is presently serving as assistant to President GAMAL NASSER of Egypt. MC GINLEY has been friendly with VON LEHR for some time and corresponded with him when VON LEHR was a refugee in Argentina.

MC GINLEY has an Austrian contact, Professor (Dr.) EDWARD MALNASI, a Hungarian who presently resides c/o FRANZ VIVOT, Victoria House, Schoffengas 10, Vien 1 Austria. MC GINLEY said he first met him when MALNASI arrived at Camp Kilmer, New Jersey Reception Center for Hungarian refugees in the Spring of 1957. MC GINLEY was acting as a press representative, and a short time later MALNASI was deported and MC GINLEY feels the "Jews" had something to do with the deportation. MC GINLEY presently corresponds with MALNASI.

MALNASI has written MC GINLEY for money but MC GINLEY has only sent him a few dollars.

T-1 believes that MC GINLEY receives literature such as "The Scribe", and "Anglo French Police Action (?) in Port Said", an anti British booklet and leaflet respectively, of photographs supposedly showing the crimes and atrocities committed by the British soldiers in Port Said, from his contacts and friends who reside in foreign countries on an exchange basis. T-1 is of the opinion that MC GINLEY does not act for or represent in any way a foreign government.

DETAILS:

In about June or July, 1957, [redacted] Deputy Collector of Customs of the Port of New York, advised the Department of Justice, Washington, D. C., that CONDE MC GINLEY at Box 807, Union, New Jersey, was receiving from overseas propaganda materials. [redacted] provided the following two samples:

b7C

- (1) One copy of an article entitled "Anglo-French 'Police Action' (?) in Port Said," by PER-OLOW ANDERSON, who was described in the article as the "Swedish Journalist Photographer." The article was printed for "World-Truth, Box 44, Jerusalem, Jordan." Photographs and the text of the article describe "Imperialism, aggression, terror, murder, crime" perpetrated by the "Anglo-French forces which invaded Egypt under the pretense of restoring peace."
- (2) One copy of the January, 1957, issue of a magazine entitled, "The Scribe." The magazine was printed by "DAF AL-HILAL." Many photographs and some text, all by PER OLOW ANDERSON, make up the magazine. "The Scribe" describes the "looting and stealing" by British troops at Port Said.

T-1 advised on October 16 and December 16, 1957, that MC GINLEY has a contact in Vienna, Austria, a Dr. EDMOND MALNASI (Name at first believed to be EDWARD), who was deported shortly after arriving in the United States in 1957 under the Hungarian refugee program. MALNASI had something to do with the Nazi movement in Hungary during World War II. T-1 stated MALNASI presently resides at Schottengasse 10, Vienna, and has very recently sent an unidentified associate of MC GINLEY some material to translate into English for MC GINLEY.

The March 5, 1957, issue of the Newark Star Ledger, a daily newspaper published in Newark, New Jersey, contained the following article regarding Dr. ODOM MALNASI:

"A one-time Hungarian Nazi propagandist and war criminal who entered this country as a refugee from communism has been deported, the American Jewish Committee said today.

"He was identified as Dr. Odon Malnasi, former head of the ideological department of the Hungarian Nazi puppet regime during World War II.

"The committee said Malnasi was escorted by immigration authorities to an airplane here yesterday and left for Austria.

"It said Malnasi was sentenced as a war criminal at the end of the war and escaped from prison during the recent Hungarian rebellion."

The records of Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), Newark, New Jersey, contained the following information on ODOM MALNASI, aka. ODOM MALNASI, EDMOND MALNASI, INS #A10934287:

MALNASI entered the United States on January 4, 1957, under the Hungarian Emergency Refugee Program. Prior to entering the United States he was a professor in Hungary (1926-1944) and wrote 42 books, mainly about Hungarian history. ROBERT MAJOR, a former counsellor of the Hungarian Ministry of Justice (1945-1947), advised he prepared a case against MALNASI, who was tried on several charges of Nazi activity, the main charge being that he was a Nazi historian and extolled Nazi theories and organization. The former counsellor also advised that at the end of World War II, MALNASI was extradited to Hungary by the American forces (October, 1945), tried by the "People's Court," found guilty and sentenced to imprisonment for several years. MALNASI was returned to Vienna on March 5, 1957, according to INS records.

T-1 stated on December 16, 1957, that he believes MC GINLEY's contact to be identical to Dr. ODOM MALNASI, aka. EDMOND MALNASI, described above.

SA [redacted] previously identified, advised SA [redacted] on December 3, 1957, that he has no further information regarding literature consigned to MC GINLEY and that no similar shipments to that previously reported have been called to his attention.

"July 12, 1959

"A distribution of literature was made this morning from 4 A.M. until around 7 A.M., exclusively in the Alexandria, Va. area. There were two teams. One was composed of GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL, [redacted] and [redacted]. This team started around 4:45 A.M. The other team was made up of three people, but [redacted] did not hear their names. This team started around four o'clock.

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

"After the handouts, [redacted] team went into a diner for coffee, and when the group came out, the Alexandria police stopped them and asked for I.D.'s. The police said that they had had complaints, and asked ROCKWELL and the rest quite a few questions. They seemed to be just checking however, and told the crew that if they listened for five more minutes, they would be converted.

b6

"This team then went to FLOYD FLEMING's and told him of the morning's activities, and FLEMING was pleased.

"Some of the remarks made:

"ROCKWELL said that a good friend of his, [redacted] had just got back from Cuba, and that there were MIG's on the runways down there. ROCKWELL said that he was going to follow this up, and see if it were true. [redacted] then said that if this were true, the group should go to the Dominican Republic Embassy and volunteer help. ROCKWELL said that he had already started to look into this matter. (It seems strange that [redacted] would come up with this idea out of the air, especially at the same time when ROCKWELL is interested in it, and I list this as one more suspicion that [redacted] is working for someone.)

b6

"ROCKWELL said that he is moving into Arlington or Alexandria next weekend, and store his goods for the time being. He indicated that he would try and find a furnished room.

"The group said that ROCKWELL, [redacted] and [redacted] flew to the Fourth of July Right Wing Convention in Chicago. ROCKWELL said that JOHN KASPER was there, with [redacted] From the talk, it appears that ROCKWELL got the floor, and gave such a jew-baiting Nazi talk that all the leaders fled. The group said that Mrs. ELIZABETH DILLING got mad, and slammed thru the door, at a remark of ROCKWELL's that "Christ has had you by the short hair for 2,000 years." ROCKWELL said that he meant nothing offensive about the remark but indicated that most of the people present were good 'Christians.' ROCKWELL said that KASPER wouldn't talk to him, and no one was brave enough to except [redacted] Some man waved a paper in ROCKWELL's face and said, 'We beat that jew-baiting in '43, and we'll do it again.' ROCKWELL said that he drew up a platform for the group, and since has received a letter from [redacted] that 'the Right Wing might be in for a complete revisal,' or words to that effect.

b7C

"ROCKWELL said that he had received a letter from CONDE MCGINLEY written on letterhead paper, and signed by MCGINLEY. This, said ROCKWELL, was an indication that MCGINLEY was coming in with all his guns, and that there would be no backing out for MCGINLEY now.

"Some material of RUSSELL MCGUIRE's was distributed, and ROCKWELL thought that it might have some effect on getting MCGUIRE back into the fold.

"FLEMING said that he might go to New Jersey in two weeks to see MCGINLEY and get some material to hand out. There will be, at least as it stands today, another distribution next week-end, mostly of the same material that went out today.

"It seems that the Alexandria police are interested in [redacted] The group told the cops that they didn't know the kid, but this was a lie, as [redacted] is the teenage Nazi of Alexandria.

b7C

"When asked about why [redacted] didn't come out with the group, ROCKWELL said that if the group ever got the money to pay [redacted] that he would make a fine Nazi. ROCKWELL said that [redacted] is down on dough, and can't afford to link up with the group."
